The technology school for friends and family

Meg, Jacob, Ria and Paul are friends at school in the UK.

My grandpa can't read a message on his mobile phone.

My mum can't play video games.

We can be their teachers.

That's a great idea.

My friend can't take a photo on her tablet.

Our friends and families need to go to technology school.

The children write an invitation for their friends and families.

On Saturday morning, one friend, one mum and one grandma go to the Technology School. They learn a lot about their tablets and mobile phones.

One month later, the children send the invitation again. This time, lots of people go to the school. The technology school for friends and family is a success.

My grandpa can read my messages on his mobile.

And I can play some great video games.

💡 Answer the questions.

- 1 What do the children do to help their family and friends?
- 2 Is their idea a success?
- 3 What can you do to help your family and friends?
