What are your resolutions for this year?

Lara McKim 14 Mar 5.04 pm

Hi! In some English-speaking countries people make New Year's resolutions. On 1st January, they write a list of good intentions for the new year. These resolutions are about important aspects of their lives, for example, join the gym, save money, eat healthy food or start a new hobby. I've got an idea. Why don't we make resolutions for the start of the school year? What do you think?

Comments

jane-t 14 Mar 6.12 pm
I like your idea. Well, this is my resolution for this year: I want to be a good student. I don't want to fail my exams. I want to get good grades!

bluetin 14 Mar 7.45 pm
Hi, jane-t! That's a good resolution. Remember to do your homework and get to school on time! Do you want to know my resolution? I want to be a good friend. Yes! I want to be nice to people and to help my friends.

My resolution is to keep my resolutions! I don't want to break them this year. You know, 30% of people keep their resolutions and 70% of people break them. Do you want to keep your resolutions? My tip: write them down and don't keep them secret. Share them with a friend. Your friend can help you to keep them!
